1st Great Yarmouth Annual General Meeting Parade on South Quay c.1911.

The original Troop was registered in 1910 under the local Scout Bylaw and operated from the Y.M.C.A. building on South Quay, as one of the first five Troops and was active until the early years of the First World War.

In 1930 the group was re-registered but remained dormant until 1934 when it re-opened using the District Headquarters on Dene Side as a new location.

The Census at the time listed membership as Adults: 7, Wolf Cubs: 45, Scouts: 28, and Rover Scouts: 3, making a group total 83 members.

The 1934 leaders listed were Group Scoutmaster John V. Smith, Rover Scoutmaster Stanley Smith, Assistant Scoutmasters Harold Auckland and Arthur Russell and Cub Mistresses Miss Annie Cooper and Miss R. Smith.

The Scout Group closed in 1939 with the onset of World War II.

Following a district growth project, the Scout Group was re-opened in 2002. Still in operation under Group Lead Volunteer Martin Pulham, Scout Team Lead Marc Smout, Cub Team Lead Paul Savage, Beaver Team Lead Amanda Pulham.
