

2nd Fritton

New Road, Fritton (1954)

Colours Green and Gold Border (1955)

The group was registered in 1954 by Group Scoutmaster Harold Parlett.

The Cub Pack started in 1955, led by Mrs. I. P. Parlett.

The group closed in 1957.

Where's my Tent? an original painting by Phil Lynes c.2024.

Scouting is important because it helps to develop young people and provide them with opportunities that they otherwise may not have had.

Scouting builds long lasting friendships and also instils values in young people that can last a lifetime.

I have friends that I met when I was a Scout that I am still friends with now that I am the Deputy Lead Volunteer in East Norfolk. Glenn Chusonis.