

15th Great Yarmouth (Bull)

St. Peter's Parsonage (1917)

St. Peter's Mission, King Street (1928)

The troop was opened in 1917 by Scoutmaster Revd. W. Recie with 24 Scouts.

The next record shows N. G. Wolsey as Scoutmaster in 1923 with 23 Scouts.

By 1928, D. G. and O. Q. Wolsey had taken over as Group Scoutmaster and Scoutmaster, respectively, with 26 Scouts and 6 Rover Scouts.

In the 1929 Norfolk Directory, there is a reference to the group being called "Bull" the reason for this is unknown.

The group closed in 1933.
