

18th Great Yarmouth (Bradwell Troop)

Church Cottage Bradwell (1923)
The School Room Bradwell (1930-1931)

Scoutmaster J. Cottam opened a troop of 8 Scouts at Church Cottage in 1923, and this had closed around 1925.

Maynard Fred Youngs re-registered the group in 1930 with 8 Scouts, this time meeting at the School Rooms in Bradwell. The group closed in 1931.

19th Great Yarmouth

Wesleyan School Rooms, Methodist Church Gorleston (1930)
Methodist Church Gorleston (1949) Shrublands Youth and Adult Centre (1955)

Colours Red (1955)

The Scout Association's Methodist Uniform Badge.

The group was registered in 1929 by group Scoutmaster Charles Arthur Grant with 7 Wolf Cubs, and 16 Scouts, meeting in the Wesleyan School Rooms, Gorleston, and closed in 1933.

The group re-opened in 1949 under J. W. Wright and relocated to Shrublands Youth and Adult Centre in 1955 under Scoutmaster B. A. Clarke.

In 1969 10th Gt. Yarmouth amalgamated with 19th Gt. Yarmouth to form the 1st Gorleston group.

20th Great Yarmouth

Melton Lodge Hospital (1954) (1959)

Colours Light Green (1954) Emerald Green (1957)

The group was registered in 1954 by R. G. Platten with 8 Scouts and operated from the Children's Orthopaedic Home, between 1954 and 1958.

The group re-opened in 1959, under R. G. Platten and the group closed in 1960.

22nd Great Yarmouth

St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church (1959)

Colours Lemon and White Halved (1959)

The group was registered in 1959 by Revd. Edward McBride and ran from the Stradbroke Junior School, Lowestoft Road, Gorleston.

The Cubmaster throughout that period was James Bartlett.

The group closed in 1966.