

Scouting Sketches by B. P.

During the early years of Scouting, the Founder Lord Robert Baden-Powell made many sketches about Scouts and Scouting activities.

B.P.

Scouting is developing steadily.

— and with the same length of stride

B.P.

A Scout is a "friend of all the world" and "a brother to every other Scout." "The way to have a friend is to be one."

TOMMY THE TENDERFOOT No. 4 TOMMY GOES CAMPING

Arriving in camp brimming over with hopes
He finds out that tents are supported by ropes.

Friends of the World at the Jamboree, In nineteen hundred and thirty three Friends of the World at the Jamboree - a painting by Lord Baden-Powell c.1933.