The first known group photograph depicting the 1st Great Yarmouth Annual General Meeting Parade on South Quay c.1911.

The original troop was registered in 1910 under the local Scout Bylaw and operated from the Y.M.C.A. building on South Quay, as one of the first five troops until the early years of the First World War.

In 1917 a Senior Scout Section was formed. This became a Rover Crew in 1920, but, was closed in 1921 due to a conflict between the Leader and the District Commissioner.

In 1930 the group was re-registered but remained dormant until 1934 when it re-opened using the District Headquarters on Dene Side as a new meeting place. The Census at the time listed membership as Adults: 7, Wolf Cubs: 45, Scouts: 28, and Rover Scouts: 3, making a group total 83 members.

The Scout group closed in 1939 with the onset of World War II.

Following a district growth project, the Scout group was re-opened in 2002.

The Cub pack was re-started in 2002 with support from the district team.

The Scout troop was formed but as it did not sustain numbers was subsequently closed, reopening in 2012.
